

ONCE TRAVEL IN PUNTA ARENAS

From São Paulo to Punta Arenas, Brazilian companies visited the city with the aim of experiencing firsthand the attractions of the far south of Chile and strengthening the promotion of the destination in Brazil.

During their stay, they toured the main services, attractions, and experiences that Punta Arenas has to offer, which will allow them to authentically share their experiences when promoting the destination.

the region. This initiative opens new opportunities to further position the destination as a must-visit in Patagonia and strengthen its presence in one of South America's most important source markets.

RIVAGEDU MUNDE - PUNTA ARENAS

The Rivage Du Monde group visited the city of Punta Arenas once again with French passengers, who enjoyed the local attractions and renowned gastronomy before continuing their journey through the channels and fjords of Tierra del Fuego, experiencing unique adventures at the southernmost tip of the world.

The cruise ship called at the city, where it carried out excursions over two days. The first day was spent at Tierra de Ovejeros, located in Cerro Castillo, while the second day was dedicated to full-day excursions in Torres del Paine National Park, including several hikes of varying difficulty, such as the well-known Portal-to-Portal route.

AURORA EXPEDITIONS IN PUNTA ARENAS

Aurora Expeditions carried out its final flights to Antarctica during March, marking one of the last stages of the season's operations. This is due to the fact that, with the arrival of autumn, weather conditions become considerably more challenging for aircraft and their crews. Despite this, passengers enjoyed favorable conditions that allowed them to fully experience and appreciate the beauty and uniqueness of the White Continent.

